THE LONDON ACTORS WORKSHOP PRESENTS

A 12 WEEK INTENSIVE ACTING / FILM WORKSHOP

Sunday 19th September - 5th December. Show case on 6th December.

Introduction

LAW offers a 12 week course, bringing together different approaches and techniques in intensive Sunday workshops. The course will be over 12 weeks and will take place on Sunday mornings or afternoons (3 hours each session)

The first part of the term

Students will have the opportunity to work with a variety of different tutors, all with vast experience and a strong, working knowledge of the TV, film and stage industry.

TV/Film

You will be taught the different techniques required in acting in front of a camera as well as an in depth look at the casting process for commercials and TV/ film. You will have the opportunity to see your self on tape followed by a discussion on how you could improve.

Masters of the Arts

Different acting skills will be covered e.g. Improvisation, Method Acting, Building A Character, Sight Reading and Audition technique, Shakespeare and Voice, Screen Combat and Text Analysis using monologues, duologues and scenes from films/TV/ plays/-devised pieces of drama.

Casting

Casting directors will give advice on what they actually look for, helping you to be fully prepared when presenting yourself for acting work.

Towards the second part of the term

Students will prepare for a showcase evening held at a Theatre (tbc) in London. This is an excellent opportunity to promote yourself to invited industry professionals. Friends and family will also be invited to see the results of your work on stage in a presentation of dramatic duologues.

Location & Booking Info

The workshop is at 36 Endell St London WC2 9HR (nearest tube Covent Garden) and will take place every Sunday for twelve weeks from Sunday 19th September - 5th December. Show case on 6th December.
